The Ambassadors' Circle ($5000+)

To you, Dancehouse, its purpose and values mean more to you than a performance space. It is a place of passion, ambition, freedom, inspiration, education, excellence, innovation and community. Be inspired by inspiring others and connect with the spirit of creation. For a contribution of above $5,000, you will be a member of our Ambassadors' Circle and deliver a new reality for dancers and Dancehouse which otherwise would have not been possible. Your contribution may go to commissioning new works, international tours, and prestigious programs like Dance Massive or Dance Territories. You will be acknowledged as an advocate of independent dance and your name associated with cutting-edge programs and projects. As a member of The Ambassadors' Circle, you will be invited to exclusive dinners and Dancehouse occasions with our artists, dancers and partners, be given three-year recognition as an Ambassador, an all-access pass to events, activities and much more (we will not know how to thank you enough).

Dancehouse is the centre for independent dance in Melbourne. Through its programs of residencies, performance, training and research, Dancehouse is a space for developing challenging, invigorating, and socially engaged moving art. Dancehouse is a genuine tool for the dance-maker, a catalyst for developing new audiences and a facilitator of meaningful alliances and mobility schemes, at home and abroad.

“Look at any biography of Australia’s most successful dance artists of the past twenty years and there you will find the name Dancehouse; unpretentiously, but profoundly and fiercely supporting independent dance and dance makers into the twenty first century.”

— Rebecca Hilton, Australian leading choreographer, director and teacher

“Participating in the arts gives our lives richness and meaning and undoubtedly plays a critical role in community development and wellbeing. With the help of our supporters, Dancehouse fosters this life-enhancing connection as Australians of all ages and backgrounds meet here to be moved and delighted by dance.

As a not-for-profit organisation, Dancehouse is committed to keeping dance accessible to everyone. Donations from our supporters are a critical part of the long term success and sustainability of Dancehouse and it’s programs.

We thank you for your generous support.”

— James Ostrobrski, Deputy Chair of Dancehouse
