REDSPAN

DANCE COMPANY

THE TREASURE, WHITE FAN AND XING
THREE WORKS BY REDSPAN DANCE COMPANY

Redspan Dance Company aims to span the divide between traditional Chinese and modern western art-forms. Artistic Director Feng Feng Wang has created a environment for dancers and artists from both Asian and Western cultures to collaborate together and develop an original character and style that expresses a complex and subtle aesthetic.

White Fan is a solo piece based on forbidden love which uses modern dance techniques to recreate the traditional Chinese fan dance with unique and spellbinding results. In Xing, five dancers explore the circulation between the five traditional Chinese "Taoism" elements of wood, fire, earth, water, and metal, while in The Treasure two dancers investigate the personal aspects of yin and yang within an intimate relationship.

Redspan Dance Company's beauty is expressed through intimacy, elegance, simplicity and abstract grace, and should not be missed.
